ABOUT THE 2019 JUNIOR COMPETITION AND FESTIVAL

The 2019 Cliburn International Junior Competition and Festival was established in 2015 as another means for the Cliburn to use its standing and expertise to encourage tomorrow's great artists, to provide a valuable forum for them to express themselves, and to give them an entrance to the next step of their journeys. Key ingredients are top competitors, international jurors, worldwide media coverage and webcast, Final Round performances with orchestra, and festival atmosphere, which includes performance experience and artistic workshops—all put into place to make the program significantly useful for students with aspirations of being professional musicians.

QUICK FACTS

- MRS. LAURA BUSH, HONORARY CHAIRMAN The esteemed former First Lady—Dallas resident, proud SMU alumna, and longtime friend to Van Cliburn—continues her lifetime commitment to education on the highest level through this honorary association with the 2019 Cliburn Junior Competition.
- COMPETITION Four riveting rounds of Competition take place May 31–June 8, 2019: Preliminary Round (23 pianists each performing 20-minute recitals to include a virtuosic etude and one Bach Prelude and Fugue), Quarterfinal Round (14 pianists each performing a 30-minute recital to include one movement of a Classical sonata and one lyrical work), Semifinal Round (6 pianists each performing a 40-minute recital to include a work by a living composer and one substantial work of at least 18 minutes in length (phase one), and one concerto movement with piano accompaniment (phase two)) at SMU; and the Final Round (3 pianists each performing one complete concerto with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Ruth Reinhardt) in a stunning conclusion at the Meyerson followed by the Awards Ceremony directly after jury voting. TICKETS ON SALE NOW.

- INTERNATIONAL Applicants and competitors hail from all around the world. 2019 applications totaled 230, with pianists representing 32 countries, and the 37 selected competitors and participants represent 13 countries. Widespread media coverage is expected; 2015 outreach resulted in over 100 stories in North America, Europe, and Asia with a potential reach of 83 million.
- ALESSIO BAX, JURY CHAIRMAN This remarkable pianist, winner of both the Leeds and Hamamatsu International Piano Competitions, and SMU artist-in-residence will oversee an international jury, to include: Philippe Bianconi (France), Angela Cheng (Canada), Valery Kuleshov (Russia), Lowell Liebermann (United States), Aviram Reichert (Israel), and Uta Weyand (Germany).
- SMU Meadows School of the Arts is a leader in developing innovative outreach and community engagement programs, challenging its students to make a difference locally and globally. The university will serve as home to the 2019 Junior Competition, hosting most performances and festival events, and housing the competitors and participants.
- DALLAS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA The largest performing arts organization in the Southwest, the DSO is committed to inspiring the broadest possible audience with distinctive classical programs and more. ## ABOUT THE CLIBURN

The Cliburn advances classical piano music throughout the world. Its international competitions, education programs, and concert series embody an enduring commitment to artistic excellence and the discovery of new artists. Established in Fort Worth, Texas, in 1962, the quadrennial Van Cliburn International Piano Competition (sixteenth edition, May 27–June 12, 2021) remains the most visible expression of that mission and is, as always, committed to its original ideals of supporting and launching the careers of emerging artists, ages 18–30. It shares the transformative powers of music with a wide global audience, through fully-produced webcasts and by providing comprehensive career management and concert bookings to its winners. Rounding out its mission, the Cliburn also produces the Cliburn International Junior Piano Competition and Festival for exceptional 13- to 17-year-old pianists (second edition, May 31–June 8, 2019), and the Cliburn International Amateur Piano Competition for outstanding non-professional pianists age 35 and older (eighth edition, May 24–30, 2020).

Over a four-year cycle, the Cliburn contributes to North Texas' cultural landscape with over 170 classical music performances for 150,000 attendees, through competitions, free community concerts, and its signature Cliburn Concerts series at Bass Performance Hall, the Kimbell Art Museum Piano Pavilion, the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, and Scat Jazz Lounge. It presents 1,000 in-school, interactive music education programs for more than 200,000 area elementary students. During the same time period, it garners the world's attention with over five million visits from 170 nations for live concert and competition webcasts; 300 concerts worldwide booked for competition winners; more than 5,000 news articles about the Cliburn and its winners; and regular national radio broadcasts to 245 public radio stations. Detailed information about the Cliburn and its programs is available at cliburn.org.
